ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It Gives Us Pleasure On Bringing Out The Project Titled

“Prepare case study on iot based Smart Stick for Blind person”

With humility and gratitude, we acknowledge our indebtedness to our project guide Prof. G. R. Sawant for her valuable guidance, supervision & untiring help without which this work would not have been accomplished. We are extremely grateful to her and consider this a privilege to get the opportunity to work under his guidance and supervision.

Our sincere thanks to our HOD DR. P.P.KARDE for permitting us to undergo this project. We would like to thank Dr. V.R. MANKAR, principal of our institute for providing the necessary facilities during the period of working on this project. We also express our thanks to our friends who knowingly or unknowingly helped us during the preparation of this project.

Finally, we would like to express our sincere gratitude towards our parents who provided us with a launchpad, and because of that, we are at this level of our career.
